

Acknowledgements	4
Introduction – Canon Judy Rees, Festival Chairman	5
Festival Reflections – Dr Rowan Williams	6
George Herbert – (1593-1663)	7
The Festival Story – Peter Webster, Festival Co-Chairman	8
‘I know the ways of Learning’ (‘The Pearl’)
Why Herbert Matters – Dr Rowan Williams	10
Herbert’s Direct Descendants – Dr Beth Dodd	14
‘Music at Midnight’ – Dr John Drury	16
Herbert and the Material World – Prof Helen Wilcox	18
‘A Blaze of Crying Birds’ – Colleen Wethered	20
‘Hearken unto a Verser’ – Gillian Clarke, Sir Andrew Motion and Dr Rowan Williams	22
Who was George Herbert? – Sonia Woolley	26
Herbert, the Sidneys and the Psalms – Prof Helen Wilcox	28
Poetry Discussion Groups	30
Festival Garden Party	32
‘My musick shall finde thee’ (‘The Thanksgiving’)
Musical Spaces in The Temple – Dr Simon Jackson	34
‘God Almighty Planted a Garden’ – Sally Bradshaw, Michael Haslam and Dr Rowan Williams	36
‘Dancing Proverbs’ – Barry Ferguson and Paris Helen	38
‘One Harmonie’ – the Farrant Singers	40
Saturday Events	44
‘Among the best in art’ (‘A true Hymne’)
‘Espying Heav’n’ – Adrian Barlow	46
‘Studie this Art’ – Sandi Ferguson	48
‘To Write a Verse’ – Marion McKenzie	50
Festival Snapshots	52
‘The way to heavens doore’ (‘Church-Musick’)
Blessing the George Herbert Stone, St Andrew’s Church, Bemerton	54
Services in Salisbury Cathedral	56
George Herbert in the Schools	58
‘The Country Parson’ – John Chandler and Rev Simon Woodley	60
Walks in Herbert’s Footsteps	62
Festival Committee	64